Ann is a life-long dog owner and has worked with dogs in rescues and shelters for almost 30 years. Ann, formerly a corporate communications and marketing professional, left her 'real job' to pursue her passion of all things dog to start Compliant K9. Along with receiving her training certification from Animal Behavior College, Ann has attended workshops and seminars given by some of the most respected dog behavior professionals in the world. In addition to training paying clients, Ann volunteers her services to Foothill Dog Rescue and El Dorado County Animal Services helping fosters, volunteers and adopters give dogs the best chance possible at finding and staying in their 'forever home'. Ann is a certified AKC CGC Evaluator and a professional member of the International Association of Canine Professionals (IACP). Ann offers discounted rates to rescued dogs, senior citizens and veterans. Visit www.CompliantK9.com for more information.
